5. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I have provided you with a copy of my Disclosure Statement prepared on 1st May 2012

6. TIMEFRAMES

The estimated time of the planning process is approximately one to two hours for the first meeting and two to three meetings may be required for the entire process. At a future mutually agreeable time, a review of your personal situation may involve a further one to two hour interview in order to update mutually agreed levels of cover. In most cases, reviews take place annually unless otherwise agreed.

7. REMUNERATION & FEES

Analysing the suitability of the provision of products and/or services to and providing a financial service to you in the form of a Statement of Advice and all associated documentation is given as a service.

There is no cost to you in respect of my services. I am paid by the investment/insurance company in the form of commission. I may also receive ongoing commission for the life of the product(s) placed. Please refer to my Disclosure Statement for details of any commission I may also receive. You will not be billed or asked to pay any fees to me at any time even if the engagement of services is terminated by either party.

8. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

As a provider of professional financial adviser services, I have an obligation to act in the interests of our clients when making a recommendation. In providing advice to you, should any, actual or potential conflict of interest arise then I undertake to bring any such conflict of interest to your notice so that you may assess my advice objectively.

9. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

It is your responsibility to provide me with accurate and relevant information at the time that the initial information is being gathered by way of the Fact Find or Needs Analysis, whichever takes place first. If you provide me with incomplete or inaccurate information, I may not be able to provide you with the advice, products or services you are seeking.

It is important that you understand your obligation to provide me with accurate and relevant information in order for the financial services provider to appropriately assess the risk and make an informed decision about the products you may be seeking.

For insurance products, in order for the insurer to assess the risk and the appropriate premium, the law requires you to disclose all the information you know, or should know, that would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in deciding whether or not to insure you, and if so on what terms and at what cost. This is called your duty of disclosure. For example, you should disclose your current income, medical history and all information about insured and uninsured losses and claims.

10. REFERRALS TO OTHER PROFESSIONALS

If at any time during the term of engagement, a potential need arises for the use of another professional, I undertake to refer you to an appropriate professional. You will not be billed or invoiced for such a service at any time by me. If an appropriate professional cannot be located I undertake to advise you as soon as possible so that you may engage a professional of your choice or seek advice in regard to the same. Should another professional be engaged, I do not accept any liability whatsoever for the advice provided or the fees invoiced by that other professional, regardless of how the engagement came about.

11. TERMINATION

I undertake to exercise care, diligence and skill in providing you with a financial adviser service. If at any time, you wish to terminate this engagement, you must advise me in writing. Upon receipt of such advice by you, I then undertake to confirm termination of the engagement to you in writing within two business days, not including any public holidays.

12. USE OF INFORMATION

I will collect personal information (including full name, address and contact details) so that I may administer my customer relationships and provide clients with the products and services they request. This information is held at my offices. If at any time you wish to have access to, or correct any of, the information obtained with your permission, please contact me. I may be allowed or obliged to disclose information by law, eg: under Court Orders or Statutory Notices pursuant to taxation laws. I may also disclose personal/business information to other financial institutions and organisations at their request if you seek to obtain products and/or services from them. Personal/business information may also be disclosed to:

- Professionals including but not limited to solicitors, accountants, mortgage brokers, and stockbrokers when a referral is required, at your request and;
- If you have insurance, those involved in the insurance process including but not limited to claims investigators, medical practitioners, re-insurers, insurance reference agencies.
- If I intend to sell my business, any prospective purchaser of my business.
- The Financial Markets Authority and/or any other regulatory body as required for audit purposes.

From time to time, this information may be updated and/or changed and I undertake to advise you of material changes to any of the items and/or products/services noted above by email and/or mail.

Summary: A Scope of Engagement document begins the process of setting out the mutually agreed terms of engagement between us.

I am happy to answer any questions you may have. If you are completely satisfied with the contents of this document and have no further questions, please sign in acknowledgement below that you have read and understood its contents and you have received a copy of my Disclosure Statement. A further copy is available on request and free of charge.

You agree to an assessment of your needs based on the range of products and services as indicated in section 3 and 4 of this document.
